Speaker

Lim Gim Kim is a Manager, handling Technical and Public Practice matters at the Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia (CTIM). Prior to that, she had a short stint at supervising compliance activities at a tax firm, where she gained hands-on experience related to some of the daily challenges of taxation work on the "other side of the fence". The "fence" is significant because it differentiated her experience at the Inland Revenue Board (where her responsibilities included, among other duties, assessment / taxation of individuals and corporations, and various technical matters within the purview of the Technical Division) from the experience related to a tax practitioner.
