Date : 9 October 2009

Venue : Best Western Premier Sri Pacific, Kuala Lumpur

Time :

9.00 am to 5.00 pm

Introduction

In the 2009 Budget, a new section 140A of the Income Tax Act, 1967 on "Transfer Pricing" was introduced. This new section in the legislation will have major tax implications on related party transactions in Malaysia. In addition, the proposed "thin capitalisation" provisions will cause concern to many companies in Malaysia. This new provision will seek to restrict the deduction of interest expenses in relation to excessive financial assistance to related parties. This workshop will discuss the tax implications arising from the above new provision and relevant guidelines issued by Inland Revenue Board.

In addition, this workshop will provide you with a practical understanding of the 2009 Mini Budget announced by the Honourable Finance Minister on 10 March 2009, the issues arising from the Budget and how will it impact businesses.
