Press statement by Ministry of Finance:-

“The Government recognises the importance of GST in ensuring a strong and sustainable fiscal position to support the long term economic growth”

“On 17 April 2012, the Tax Review Panel (TRP) held a meeting with businesses and associations to assess whether businesses are ready to implement the GST. The TRP has indicated that the GST is coming soon”

The importance of being GST ready

GST is an indirect tax that may affect all inputs and outputs of a business organisation and this tax will replace the existing sales and services tax regime. To ensure you are GST ready, a coordinated effort within the business organisation is essential. It is just not another tax issue to be left only with the Finance and Accounts Department. Rather, it is a “cross functional” issue that can affect the entire business structure and hence require input from all key business units.

CTIM is pleased to present to our members a 10-day modular course between 1 November 2012 to 1 December 2012, followed by 3-day revision session with the cooperation and support of the Royal Malaysian Customs Department. A 1-day examination will be conducted after the courses.

Attendance to all sessions is compulsory. The Royal Malaysian Customs Department will only issue a Certificate of Attendance to those participants who attend all sessions, sit for and pass the examination.

Speakers

The speakers for these training courses are representatives from the GST Implementation Unit of the Royal Malaysian Customs Department.
