INTRODUCTION

The submission of Income Tax Return Forms carries more repercussions than meets the eye. It is not the mere question of filling details and data. The completion of Return Forms now demands greater attention not just to facts but the relevant law also, especially with the many recent amendments. This responsibility needs to be properly executed because much more than the obvious will be noticeable to those trained to study and analyse such forms. Where incorrectly implemented, there is the risk that the Inland Revenue Board (IRB) may want to study the person's taxation matters in greater detail through a tax audit.

This workshop guides the participant through all the sections of the various forms that tax practitioners may be asked to assist in completing and thereby render better service to their clients. In addition, the impact of the information furnished and how the IRB would utilise it will be explored. The rather complex subject of transfer pricing will be examined in detail as this is an area that Revenue now giving great attention to.
