

LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIP - A NEW TAXATION ENTITY

Date: 4 March 2014
Venue: Mutiara Hotel, Johor Bahru
Event Code: WS/005
Time: 9.00am to 5.00pm

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

The Limited Liability Partnership is a new entity for carrying out business activities in Malaysia and while it reflects elements of both a limited company and a partnership, it has close similarities to a company where taxation is concerned. Its creation offers a variety of options since it could be a newly incorporated vehicle or converted from an existing partnership or limited company.

As in the case of companies, limited liability partnerships fall within the purview of the Companies Commission of Malaysia but where taxation is concerned, they are of course governed by the Income Tax Act and Revenue's procedures. Participants will be introduced to the features of an LLP and the differences between limited companies, conventional partnerships, and the limited liability partnerships. The seminar would examine the 3 related laws, i.e., the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2012, the Limited Liability Partnerships Regulations 2012, and in particular, the Income Tax Act.
