There will always be uncertainty as to how tax laws on property activities work. Property developers and investors still grappling with the income tax issues. In many instances, it is through litigation in the courts that we are able to understand and establish how the tax laws are interpreted and operate. This seminar is meant to enlighten property developers and real estate players as well as property investors on the accounting, tax and legal issues in the industry and how to handle them properly.

Speaker's Profile

Yong Mei Sim has served over 35 years in the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia (“IRB”) and held the last position as the Principal Assistant Director of the Penang branch, before retiring in 2016. She obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree majoring in Economics with a Second Class Upper from the University Science of Malaysia in Penang. She was later awarded the prestigious JPA scholarship to pursue and successfully completed her Master's of Science in Taxation from the Golden Gate University in San Francisco, USA. During her tenure in office, she has been, inter alia, an audit manager in charge of the Payroll Taxes Unit, Field Audit and Desk Audit Unit. She had actively assisted the Federal Councils of the IRB in handling tax litigation cases. Among the landmark tax litigation cases which she was directly involved are ICTSB vs DGIR, PSSB vs DGIR and Marigold (M) Sdn Bhd vs DGIR. With her vast knowledge and experience in the field of Malaysian taxation, she has been invited by the IRB and other professional bodies to speak extensively around the country and to share her valuable experience and expertise on income tax updates and all other relevant taxation matters.

Please note that the CPD points awarded qualify for the purpose of application and renewal of tax agent license under Section 153, Income Tax Act, 1967.
