

An Advanced - Level Review of Taxation Benefits in Specialised Industries

Date : 5 January 2020, Tuesday
Time : 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Event Code : 20WS/051

To diversify the Malaysian economy and heighten the application of high-technology, numerous incentives are available. These incentives are attractive as they offer wide tax exemption to companies in specialized industries and those that use or manufacture advanced systems, processes, and equipment.

Categories of Strategic Activities and High-tech Products include:

- 1. Small/Medium Scale Enterprises
This sector includes a wide range of activities like manufacturing and related processing, iron and steel products, chemicals and pharmaceuticals, textiles, agriculture, apiculture, and electrical/electronic components. SMEs are also eligible for Pioneer Status and Investment Tax Allowance.
- 2. MSC Malaysia
For businesses located in Cybercity/Cybercentre and even outside, tax benefits are granted to those related to information technology systems and innovation.
- 3. Aerospace Industry
Activities include design, construction, and maintenance of related products such as aircraft, communication and navigation systems, and MRO support groups
- 4. Automotive Industry
Manufacture of value-added parts and components like transmission, brake, and steering systems, and hybrid or electric vehicles
- 5. Manufacturing Sector
Promoted activities would comprise processing agricultural produce, manufacture of pharmaceuticals, petrochemicals, machinery, and electronic products. Halal
- 6. Food Production - More Details
The Food Industry covers processing and canning of meat, and the manufacture of cereals, milk, biscuits, and noodles. Other principal activities include juices, fresh and canned fruits, and aquaculture products. Halal food processing can also enjoy special incentives.
