CTIM is the premier tax body with a mission of providing the highest standard of technical and professional competencies in revenue law and taxation practices supporting members and the nation.

The Tax Guardian is the official journal of the Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia and is circulated to members and students of CTIM as well as subscribers, both corporate and individuals.

The Tax Guardian carries a wide range of technical articles on topical tax issues analysed by leading practitioners, academicians, lawyers and the authorities. It also provides apt summaries of recent developments in taxation both locally as well as internationally to meet the increasing demands of busy tax practitioners. The informative articles will undoubtedly enhance the technical knowledge and competency of members, students and readers.

The Tax Guardian is published quarterly i.e. the months of January, April, July and October.
