	under the 2016 Rules.
	iii. Each approval would be granted in respect of an investment made in 3 different activities of a new business which are agriculture, healthcare and industrial; and
	iv. The investments are to be made in a BSC, the paid-up capital of which (or any of it) is not owned by any relation which is specified in items (A) to (G) of paragraph 5(b)(iv). (See Example 1)
	v. An individual who has obtained approval under the 2007 Rules may apply for the incentive under the 2016 Rules, provided that an investment to be made must be in a different activity (refer item iii. above) from the previous approval.
	The application to invest in a BSC must be submitted to the Minister of Finance (the Minister) through BCorp for approval on or after 1.1.2016.
6	Tax incentive
	- A deduction is allowed in the basis period for a (YA) in determining adjusted income from a business source in an amount equal to the actual investment made by the investor in the basis period, in a BSC approved by the Minister.
	<ul> <li>The investment by the investor—</li> <li>must be made not earlier than 1.1.2016 and not later than 31.12.20120, for the value approved by the Minister and for the sole purpose of financing activities at the initiation of commercialization stage of a new business approved by the Minister.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>if made prior to the commencement of a new business, is deemed to be made on the date the new business commences as determined by BCorp. (See Example 3.)</li> </ul>
	- Investments in the form of holding of paid-up capital should not be disposed of within 5 years from the date of the last investment. If a disposal takes place within that 5 year period, the consideration for the disposal will be added on in ascertaining adjusted income of the investor for the YA in the basis period in which the consideration is received. The amount added back shall not exceed the deduction allowed in respect of the investment. (See Example 4.)
7	Cessation of tax incentive
	The incentive allowed under the 2016 Rules ceases in the basis period for a YA when the – <ul><li>(a) amount of approved investment has been fully claimed, or</li><li>(b) BSC commences the commercialization of the activities in respect of which the investment was made (based on the date of the first invoice); whichever is earlier.</li></ul>
8	Non-application The 2016 Rules do not apply to an investor in the basis period for a YA if the investor has been granted an incentive/ exemption or claimed a deduction under the provisions of any of the legislations specified under paragraph 8 (items (a) to (e)) of this PR.
9	Any deduction for an investment which has been approved under the revoked 2007 Rules shall continue to apply as if the Rules have not been revoked.
10	Disclaimer The examples in this PR are illustrative and not exhaustive.
11	This PR has to be read together with PR No. 8/2018 on Tax Incentives for BSC.
