15 March 2013

TO ALL MEMBERS

IFA-TA Asia Pacific Regional Tax Conference

CTIM is pleased to support the first Asia Pacific Regional Tax Conference from 2-4 April 2013, which is organised, by IFA Singapore and the Tax Academy of Singapore

Supported by IFA US, this conference represents a unique forum for tax practitioners, tax administrators, tax policymakers and academics to discuss current key issues on Asia-Pacific taxation.

The Conference will feature leading international and regional tax experts, representatives of a number of tax authorities in the Asia-Pacific region. The keynote address will be on global trends and developments in international tax anti-avoidance. The plenary sessions will include developments in Asia-Pacific tax policy and administration, permanent establishments, business restructuring and intangibles, and the resolution of tax disputes.

A feature of the Conference will be a series of workshop seminars that will explore in detail aspects of the main topics. Consideration on issues such as beneficial ownership, GAAR developments (including India's GAAR), indirect transfers and APAs will be given. The programme will conclude with a discussion by a panel of respected Asia-based tax directors on practical strategies to manage tax in Asia. A series of post-seminar workshops on topics such as regulatory and tax developments influencing funds, investment and taxes in China, transfer pricing trends, developments, and India tax management strategies will be held.
