- y) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.
- z) To make donations for patriotic or for charitable purposes.

Provided always that the Institute shall not support with its funds any political organisation or society or endeavour to impose on or procure to be observed by its members or others any regulations, restrictions or conditions which, if any were included in the objects of the Institute would make it a Trade Union within the meaning of the Trade Union Act 1959.

5. The income and property of the Institute howsoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Institute as set forth in this Constitution and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise, howsoever, by way of profit to the Members of the Institute.

Provided that nothing herein shall prevent in good faith of payment of remuneration to any officer, agent or servant of the Institute or to any member of the Institute in return for any services actually rendered to the Institute or prevent the payment of interest at any rate to be determined by the Institute on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for, premises demised or let by any member to the Institute, but so that no member of the Council or governing body of the Institute shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Institute or any office of the Institute paid by fees and that no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Institute to any member of such Council, Committee or governing body except in repayment of out-of-pocket expenses, travelling and subsistence allowance and interest at a rate determined by the Council on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Institute.

6. No addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to or in the Constitution for the time being in force unless the same shall have been previously submitted to and approved by the Minister for the time being administering the Act.
7. Clauses 5 and 6 are conditions upon which a licence is issued by the Minister charged with the responsibility for companies.
8. The Institute is not allowed to solicit donation from the public without the approval of the Registrar of Companies.
9. The Council of the Institute shall always ensure that the Institute or the funds of the Institute is not being used for any form of political activity or for unlawful purpose prejudicial to or incompatible with peace, welfare, security, public order, good order or morality in Malaysia or for any purpose prejudicial to national security or public interest.
10. There shall be a Council for the management of the affairs of the Institute.
11. No person shall be appointed or elected as member of the Council of the Institute unless his appointment or election has been approved by the Registrar of Companies.
12. The liability of the Members is limited.
13. Every Member of the Institute undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Institute, in the event of the same being wound up during the time that he is a Member, or within one year afterwards, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Institute contracted before the time at which he ceases to be a Member, and of the cost, charges and expenses of winding up the same, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves such amount as may be required, not exceeding Ringgit One Hundred (RM100).
14. If upon winding up or dissolution of the Institute there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Institute, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions or organisation having objects similar to the objects of the Institute or such other institutions approved under Section 44(6) of the Income Tax Act 1967.

15. Proper accounts shall be kept of monies received and expended by the Institute, and the matter in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, and of the property, credits and liabilities of the Institute, and subject to any reasonable restriction as to the time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Institute for the time being, shall be opened to the inspection of the Members. Once at least in every calendar year the accounts of the Institute shall be audited in such manner as may be required by the Act, the Constitution and any rules made thereunder by one or more approved Company Auditor or Auditors.

(v) The address (including Electronic Address):

- (a) of a Member appearing in the Register of Members;
- (b) provided by the Member to the Institute for purposes of communication with him, shall be deemed as the last known address of the Member for purposes of communication including but not limited to service of notices and/or documents to the Member respectively.

Communication by
Hard Copy Deemed
Served

(vi) Any item or material being communicated by hard copy shall be deemed to have been served by the Institute to a Member on the day the prepaid letter, envelope or wrapper containing such item or material is posted.

In proving service by post it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice or document or material was properly addressed and stamped and put into a government post box or delivered to the postal authority for delivery.

In proving service by facsimile it shall be deemed to be effective at the time of despatch with confirmed answerback of the addressee appearing at the beginning and end of the communication.

Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been given on the day on which the advertisement shall first appear.

Communication in Electronic Form
Deemed Served

(vii) A communication in Electronic Form sent to the Members by Electronic Communication shall be deemed to be served upon transmission of the same to the Electronic Address of the addressee provided that the Institute has record of the Electronic Communication being sent and does not receive an automated delivery failure notice after the communication has been transmitted.

Communication by Publication on Website Deemed
Served

(viii) A communication by means of publication on a website shall be deemed to be served upon when the material was first made available on the website provided that the notification of the publication or availability of the item or material being communicated on the website has been given to the Members whether in hard copy and/or Electronic Form in accordance with the Act.

Communication by
Electronic Platform
Deemed Served

(ix) A communication via electronic platform maintained by the Institute or third parties shall be deemed to be served on the date the item or material being communicated was first made available thereto provided that the notification of the publication or availability of the item or material being communicated on the relevant electronic platform has been given to the Members whether in hard copy and/or Electronic Form in accordance with the Act.

(x) In the event that service of a notice or documents pursuant to Clause 55(iii) is unsuccessful, the Institute must, within two (2) business days from discovery of delivery failure, make alternative arrangements for service by serving notice or document in hard copy in accordance with Clause 55(ii).

(xi) A Member who has no registered address within Malaysia and has not supplied to the Institute an address within Malaysia for purposes of communication with him shall not be entitled to receive any notice or documents or communication in hard copy through post from the Institute.

Who May Receive
Notice

56.

Notice of every Meeting of Members shall be given in any manner hereinbefore specified to:

- a. every Member;
- b. every Council Member; and
- c. the Auditors.

Omission to Give Notice

57.

The accidental omission to give notice of meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed or the proceedings at any such meeting.

Circulation of Statement/Notice of Resolution

Any two (2) members having a right of voting may require the Institute to:-

- (a) circulate a statement with respect to a matter referred to in a proposed resolution to be dealt with at that meeting or other business to be dealt with at that meeting; or
- (b) give notice of a resolution which may be properly moved and is intended to move at that meeting, to Members of the Institute entitled to receive notice of a Meeting of Members provided a request is received by the Institute

- (i) In the case of a requisition requiring notice of resolution, at least ten (10) clear days before the meeting; or
- (ii) In the case of any other statement, at least seven (7) clear days before the day appointed for the meeting.

Requisition of Meetings

59.

- (1) The Council may convene a Meeting of Members subject to the provisions herein contained. The Executive Director or a Council Member or any person exercising the role of Executive Director as directed by the President, must convene a meeting of the Council within seven (7) days if required to do so in writing by four (4) Members of the Council, to discuss the convening of a Meeting of Members.
- (2) Subject to the Act, a Meeting of Members shall also be convened by the Council upon receipt of a signed requisition of not less than five per centum (5%) of the Members entitled to vote, stating the purposes of the Meeting. Such meeting shall be convened within fourteen (14) days of the requisition and held on a date not more than twenty-eight (28) days after the date of the notice to convene the meeting.
- (3) A Meeting of Members shall be held at a place, time and date to be determined by the Council. Notice of such meeting, together with the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given to all Members not less than fourteen (14) clear days before the date fixed for the meeting unless the purpose is for the passing of a special resolution or amendment of the Constitution in which event twenty-one (21) clear days' notice shall be given.
- (4) In the event the Council fails to convene a Meeting of Members requisitioned by Members as aforesaid in this Constitution, the Members who requisitioned the meeting, or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of them may convene the meeting of Members.

Such meeting shall be convened on a date not more than three (3) months after the date on which the Council received a requisition to convene a Meeting of Members.

The meeting shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are requisitioned to be convened by the Council of the Institute.

- (5) No business, except that which has been duly notified, may be transacted at a Meeting of Members.

PROCEEDING AT MEETING OF MEMBERS

|----------|-----|---|
| Chairman | 60. | The Chair at a Meeting of Members shall be taken by the President of the Council, or in his absence by the Deputy President or if he is also absent, by any Fellow Member of the Institute or any Associate Member elected by the meeting. All Meetings of Members shall be conducted in accordance with These Presents. No non-members of the Institute may attend Meetings of Members of the Institute except by invitation of the Council and with the consent of the meeting. Such persons may also speak with the permission of the Chairman.  |
| Quorum   | 61. | (1) The quorum at a Meeting of Members shall be not less than thirty (30) Members except as provided for under this Clause, present and entitled to vote at the time the chair is taken, which shall be within half an hour of the time fixed for the meeting. (2) In the event of there being no quorum, the meeting shall – (a) In the case of a Meeting of Members called by the Council, stand adjourned to a time and date to be determined by the Council not less than one (1) week and not more than two (2) weeks later; such time and date shall be notified to all Members in writing by the Corporate Secretary within forty-eight (48) hours of the adjournment. The quorum for such an adjourned meeting shall be fifteen (15) Members who are entitled to vote at a Meeting of Members. The agenda for the adjourned meeting shall be the same as that for the original meeting. If a quorum is not present at an adjourned Meeting the Members present shall be a quorum. (b) In case of a Meeting of Members requisitioned or convened by Members under Clause 59(2) or (4) of this Constitution, the meeting shall be considered dissolved. (3) Objections, if any, to the validity of a Meeting of Members, shall be duly considered and dealt with the Chairman of the meeting before the notice convening the meeting is read or deemed read. Once the meeting has commenced, no objection relating to the validity of the Meeting of Members may be raised during the progress of the meeting. No meeting which has a quorum present at the beginning of the meeting shall become incompetent to transact business from want of a quorum arising after the Chair has been taken and the notice convening the meeting has been read or deemed read. |
| Voting   | 62. | Voting for election to the Council and for purposes of amendments to the Constitution shall be by secret ballot. Voting on all other matters may be by show of hands and in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall both on a show of hands and at a poll   | have a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a Member. Postal balloting shall be permitted. Any decision, except where specifically provided for otherwise, shall be by a simple majority of the votes cast.

	63.	Any member who is not able to attend the Meeting of Members may cast his vote by post. Postal ballot papers shall be serially numbered. All sealed postal ballots are to be mailed directly to the Institute or to such address as may be provided by the Institute and shall be placed in a sealed ballot box, to be opened on the day of the Meeting of Members. Proof of posting by Member is not proof of receipt of the postal ballot.
Evidence of Passing of Resolution Without Poll	64.	At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least five (5) Members present personally and entitled to vote at the meeting, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Institute shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
Poll	65.	If a poll is demanded as aforesaid it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs (and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise) and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment.
Votes of Members	66.	Subject to the provisions of Clause 71 every Member present in person and entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote and upon a poll every Member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote.
Proxies Permitted	67.	Subject to Clauses 62 and 63, votes may only be cast either personally or by proxy appointed under the provisions of Clause 49(2).
Electronic Address Provided in the Notice	68.	The Institute may include an Electronic Address in a notice calling for a meeting and accordingly any document or information relating to the proceedings at a meeting, including the appointment and termination of a proxy may be sent by electronic means to the Electronic Address provided by the Institute in the notice calling a meeting.
Appointment of Proxy via Electronic Communication	69.	(1) Subject to the Act, the Council of the Institute, may accept the appointment of proxy received by Electronic Communication on such terms and subject to such conditions as they consider fit.

- (2) For the purposes of this Clause, the Council may require such reasonable evidence they consider necessary to determine and verify: -
  - (a) the identity of the Member and the proxy; and
  - (b) where the proxy is appointed by a person acting on behalf of the Member, the authority of that person to make the appointment.
- (3) Without prejudice to Clause 69(1), the appointment of a proxy by Electronic Communication must be received at the Electronic Address specified by the Institute in any of the following sources and shall be subject to any terms, conditions or limitations specified therein:
  - a. Notice calling the meeting;
  - b. Instrument of proxy sent out by the Institute in relation to the meeting; or
  - c. Website maintained by or on behalf of the Institute.
- (4) An appointment of proxy by Electronic Communication must be received at the Electronic Address specified by the Institute pursuant to Clause 69(3) not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the form of appointment of proxy proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
- (5) An appointment of proxy by Electronic Communication which is not made in accordance with this Clause shall be invalid.

Form of Proxy

70.

- (1) Every instrument of proxy whether for a specified meeting or otherwise shall be in the form which the Council may approve from time to time.
- (2) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer.

Instrument to be Deposited at Office or as Specified

- (3) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place within Malaysia as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

When Vote by Proxy Valid Though Authority Revoked 71. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the instrument under which the vote is given provided that no intimation in writing of the death or revocation shall have been received before the meeting is held.

Members not Entitled to Vote etc. 72. No member shall be entitled to vote on any question either personally or by proxy at any Meeting of Members of the Institute or at a poll whose subscription is overdue for three (3) months.

MANAGEMENT OF THE INSTITUTE

Council and Composition 73. (i) The Management of the Institute shall vest in a Council comprising of sixteen (16) Members.
(ii) Members of the Council shall be elected into the Council by the Meeting of Members of the Institute in accordance with the rules contained in this Constitution.

(iii) The First Members of the Council shall be: -

The Appointee shall retire at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting of the Institute and is eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the number of Council Members who retire by rotation at the meeting in accordance with Clause 76.

75. Members of the Council shall not hold office for more than two (2) consecutive terms or a continuous period of eight (8) years. The limitation of tenure of two (2) consecutive terms or a continuous period of eight (8) years does not preclude a member from being appointed to any committee/working group/sub-committee of the Institute.
- Retirement of Council Members 76. At each subsequent annual general meeting, one quarter (1/4) of the Members of the Council (or, if their number is not multiple of four, the number nearest to but not exceeding one quarter) shall retire by rotation but shall be eligible for re-election. The retiring Members of the Council shall be those who have been longest in office since the date of election or last re-election. As among those who have been in office for the same length of time, the Members who are to retire shall, unless there is an agreement among them, be determined by lot.
- Vacation of Office of Council Member 77. The office of a Member of the Council is vacated: -
- (a) If he dies or leaves Malaysia for a period of more than twelve (12) months or resigns or is unwilling or becomes incapable of carrying out his duties.
  - (b) If he ceases to be a Member of the Institute or is suspended from membership.
  - (c) If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent or enters into any composition or arrangement with or makes any assignment for the benefit of his creditors or allows any judgement against him to remain unsatisfied for a period of twenty-one (21) days.
  - (d) If he is declared lunatic or becomes of unsound mind.
  - (e) If he is convicted of a serious criminal offence.
  - (f) If he is convicted of an offence involving bribery, fraud or dishonesty.
  - (g) If he is prohibited from being a Member of the Council pursuant to the Act.
- Removal of Council Member and Appointment of Another in His Place 78. A Member of the Council may be removed by ordinary resolution before the expiry of his term of office at a Meeting of Members and another Member elected in his place or upon Clause 85(h) taking effect.
79. A Member of the Council may resign from office before the expiry of his term by giving notice to the Council. Such resignation shall take effect from when it is delivered at The Office or at a later date stipulated in the notice.

Filling of Vacancy	80.	Any casual vacancy arising from the vacation of office under Clause 78 or 79 by a Member of the Council or upon death shall be filled by the Council by appointment from amongst Members of the Institute. Such appointee shall hold office only for the remainder term of office of the vacating Member.
Election of President and Deputy President	81.	The Council shall be responsible for the overall management of the Institute and shall at its first meeting after incorporation and after an Annual General Meeting thereafter elect from among the Council Members a President, a Deputy President. The President and Deputy President shall be elected from amongst the Council by a simple majority vote.
