OVERVIEW

CTIM, was formerly known as “Malaysian Institute of Taxation (MIT)”, established on 1 October 1991.

A new name “Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia (CTIM)” was adopted officially on 12 March 2009, governed by a council of 16 members.

CTIM has >3,800 members & 7 branches in Malaysia

INSTITUTE'S MISSION

- To be the premier body providing effective institutional support to members and promoting convergence of interest with government, using taxation as a tool for the nation's economic advancement; and
- To attain the highest standard of technical and professional competency in revenue law and practice supported by an effective secretariat.

WHAT IS TAXATION?

- Tax is ‘a financial charge (not a voluntary payment nor a donation) exacted pursuant to legislative authority. Failure to pay is punishable by law’.
- Tax comprises two areas: direct tax and indirect tax.
- All Governments use different kinds of taxes & vary the tax rates to redistribute the national wealth among individuals & classes in the population.

HOW IS TAX USED?

Taxation finances the following functions of a nation:

- Defence;
- Enforcement of law and public order;
- Economic infrastructure;
- Social engineering;
- Welfare and public services;
- Education systems, health care and pensions;
- Public transportation;
- Energy, water and waste management.

BEING TAX EFFICIENT

“The avid goal of a taxpayer is to minimise his/her tax liability.”

“A taxpayer is not expected to arrange his/her affairs in such a manner so as to pay maximum tax.”

“A taxpayer endeavors to be tax efficient – by complying with procedures, taking benefit of available incentives, exemptions and rebates within the ambit of the Revenue Law.”
