Introduction

Section 138A of the Income Tax Act, 1967 (the Act) provides the Director General of Inland Revenue (DGIR) the power to make a Public Ruling in relation to the application of any provisions of the Act. Public Rulings set out the interpretation of the DGIR in relation to the relevant tax law and the procedural matters applicable. In the Self-Assessment system, taxpayers have the responsibility to ensure that the tax returns are filed in accordance with the Act, Public Rulings and Guidelines issued by the DGIR. There have been many Public Rulings issued by the DGIR and its important for taxpayers / consultants to know the Public Rulings well.

In this workshop, the speaker will go through selected Public Rulings (as below) that have been issued in the last two years with the participants and highlight the salient points and issues.
